

First Shutout for Jaster
 The Cardinals' Larry Jaster turned in his first major league shutout when he stopped the Dodgers on seven hits and extended the Los Angeles scoreless string to 30 innings in a 2-0 victory, April 25.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Braves Feast on Mets
 Extending a streak started at Milwaukee in 1964, the Braves tied a major league record in the first game of an April 24 double-header by beating the Mets for the eighteenth straight time at home, 5-2.

GAMES OF WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20
LOS ANGELES AT HOUSTON (N)
 Osteen, winning his third complete game in as many starts, pitched Dodgers to 3-2 victory over Astros. Ferrara supported Osteen with two RBIs, accounting for Dodgers' first run with homer in second inning. After Astros pulled even, Roseboro doubled in seventh and scored tie-breaking run on single by Ferrara. Oliver forced Ferrara and took third on single by Osteen, but was cut out at plate when Willis grounded to mound. However, Parker followed with single, scoring Osteen with deciding run.

ATLANTA AT PHILADELPHIA (N)
 Sacrifice fly by pinch-hitter Pagan with bases loaded in ninth inning scored Clendenon to give Pirates 3-2 victory over Reds. Johnson hit homer for Reds, who tied score at 2-2 in ninth. After single by Harper kayoed Cardwell. Face relieved and was greeted with triple by Rose. However, little righthander retired next three batters, stranding Rose at third. In Pirates' half, Clendenon and Mazerowski opened with singles and Bailey was passed intentionally to load bases, setting scene for Pagan's game-winning sacrifice fly.

ATLANTA AT PHILADELPHIA (N)
 Although allowing only five hits, Short was guilty of two lapses of control, resulting in defeat of Phillies by Braves, 5-4. In sixth inning, with Phils leading, 4-2, Short gave up single by Torre and three consecutive passes to force in run. Torre walked in eighth and gave way to pinch-runner Alomar, who scored tying tally on triple by Carty. Short then uncorked wild pitch, allowing Carty to count. Mathews, coming into lineup for Braves in ninth, set record for most games played at third base, 2,009.
