

FRASIER ACQUITS HIMSELF IN COURT... HARRIS THINKS CHANGE OF CLUBS WILL HELP TWIRLER... Detroit Pilot, at Same Time, Feels Wyatt May Do Better With Sox; Pitching of Tigers Improving

DETROIT, Mich.—Pitching has been the main asset of the Tigers this season and now there are signs of improvement...

The deal for Wyatt had been brewing since May 21. When the Tigers moved out of Boston that night, Bucky Harris left a note for Lew Fonseca...

Harris Gave Wyatt Every Chance. Wyatt has been one of the chief disappointments of Harris' career...

It has been Frasier's lot this season to appear in many games that were hopelessly lost before he was called to the box...

Another deal made by Detroit manager Frank Reiber, recruit catcher, to Toledo, subject to recall on 24 hours' notice...

At Toledo, Reiber will have the benefit of the advice of Steve O'Neill, who should understand all the ills that beset a young game when he was one of the stars of the Cleveland and has a long record of achievement in developing young players...

Valley's Attendance Above Normal; Night Play Expected to Help Peoria

KEOKUK, Ia.—The attendance in the Mississippi Valley league is holding up remarkably well, and if the crowds continue to show the interest they have expressed...

LEAVES FROM THE LEAGUE PLAYERS' CHECKBOOK

JAMES JOSEPH DYKES

Third baseman, Chicago White Sox. Born, Philadelphia, Pa., November 10, 1886. Height, five feet nine inches. Weight, 180 pounds. Bats and throws right-handed. Married. Father of three children. Home address, 18 Oak Lane, Oakmont, Upper Darby, Pa.

JIMMY DYKES is called baseball's jack-of-all-trades. But old proverb stops there because he likewise is master of all trades...

Jimmy put in 13 complete seasons with Athletics before figuring in big cash deal with White Sox along with Al Simmons and George Haas during 1923 World's Series...

Dykes is straight mixture of Scotch and Irish. Father came from Scotland, mother from County Cork, Ireland. Dykes, Sr., now dead, had never seen game before coming to America and settling in Philadelphia...

Jimmy insists his father never threw ball in his life and did not know how to play game, but dad learned fine points and when Jimmy was about 14 he helped organize Penn Street Boys Club team...

Getting back to personally, Dykes' popularity among fans of Philadelphia keeps him busy going rounds of banquet between seasons. Has large fund of humorous stories...

ATTACK OF DODGERS DWINDLES ALONG WITH SLUMP OF O'DOUL

1st Year's Batting Champion Goes to Bench, But Hits Homer on Return and Better Things are Promised; General Shake-Up by Owners Next Year Forecast

BROOKLYN, N. Y.—Consider the case of Francis Joseph O'Doul, the black cat of San Francisco. In 1932, O'Doul was the National League's champion batter...

Never a good spring hitter, O'Doul was slower than ever in the production of early season base hits this year. Once or twice, he showed evidence of snapping into the spirit of the thing...

It is difficult to understand just what happened to the Dodgers. In 1932, the club entered its way to a third-place finish, in spite of the fact that it had a powerful lineup...

This year, the Brooklyn pitching undoubtedly has been better, but the improvement is not significant...

The Keokuk club, after setting a new Valley record by losing its first 12 games, has begun to mend, although it is still some distance down the cellar...

Complete reports are not available at the office of Dr. Logan at this writing, but he declared the other day that the Memorial hospital receipts of which, like all other retail stores, he is a member...

GEORGE GIBSON'S CHECKBOOK

SHAKES UP PIRATE BATTING ORDER, GIVES LINDSTROM REST

Not All of Recent Trouble is Traceable to Vaughan's Slump; Pitching Falls Off With General Form

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—George Gibson is searching diligently for a panacea for the ills that have befallen his Pirates, just at a time when they are expected to be all set as National League leaders...

The team took the rest cure for a couple of days last week, but that wasn't efficacious, for on June 2, the Pirates dropped both halves of a double-header to the Cincy Reds, 5 to 9 and 4 to 5.

Earlier in the season it looked as if the Corsairs had ceased to have any fear of the battering a single department of the Reds, but he conquered them in Redland on May 28 to the tune of 4 to 0, and it did again in the first game on June 3...

Lindy started off well enough this spring, but recently he has been dropping in his hitting, and his average shriveled to a point which compelled Manager Gibson to take cognizance of the slump.

Many fans wondered why Gibby moved Lindy from the lead-off position, but as he has been among the league's six leading clouters right along, and has been the only member of the team to rank among the organization's top-notchers...

Another factor in the Pirates' general decline has been the falling off in fielding skill on the Brooklyn team. In the first time this spring, duplicated his defensive performances of last season, when he ranked with the surest infielders in the majors...

To add to Gibson's troubles, the pitchers have been taking it on the chin with unbecoming regularity, in sharp contrast to the splendid work they had been doing previously. None of the hurlers has escaped a severe reprimand...

As a matter of fact, the entire team has been in the dumps for some time. The boys went through a grueling Eastern invasion without encountering disaster and they were in the dumps for some time...

Gibson continued morning workouts daily during the team's stay at home, paying special attention to batting.
